

Dr. Farzin Rezaei, Vice-Chancellery for Research

Dr. Farzin Rezaei was born in a religious family in Sanandaj city in 1970. From the very beginning of his childhood, he became familiar with the principles of Islam. As the health harbinger, he served his military service in Ghorveh city. In 1988, he was admitted in medicine in Tehran University of Medical Sciences. In 1998, he was appointed as the deputy of prevention of welfare organization in Kurdistan province. Two years later, he was appointed as the chief executive officer in the welfare organization. Almost in the same year, he began his activities in non-governmental organizations of drug intervention. After his admission in psychiatry in 2003, he resigned from being the manager of welfare organization. He graduated from Tehran University of Medical Sciences, after acquiring the first place in Encyclopedia Exam of Psychiatry in 2003, he graduated from Tehran University of Medical Sciences. In 2008, he was appointed as a faculty member in Kurdistan University of Medical Sciences. With the help of his colleagues in psychiatry department, he began admitting assistant in psychiatry. He has played a significant role in setting up educational courses in psychotherapy. He promoted to the associate degree in 2013.